

and displaying at the individual user station the summary information for the selected program simultaneously with the program guide.

38. The method of claim 37 in which the summary information includes a text description relating to the programming available to the viewer and the text description is displayed simultaneously with the selected program and the programming guide in response to a user selection of a currently available program.

39. The method of claim 37 in which the image is a video segment relating to the associated program.

40. The method of claim 27 in which the image is a still image relating to the associated program.

REMARKS

This application is now ready for substantive examination, and such action is requested.

Please call the undersigned if there are any questions concerning this application.

Respectfully submitted,

KLARQUIST SPARKMAN CAMPBELL
LEIGH & WHINSTON, LLP

Date: February 23, 1999

By

Garth A. Winn

Registration No. 33,220

One World Trade Center, Suite 1600
121 S.W. Salmon Street
Portland, Oregon 97204
Telephone: (503) 226-7391
Facsimile: (503) 228-9446